

The story of Brian King

Video (What you see/Shot List)	Audio (What you will say/Script)
INTRO	Bryan King, the drummer of Reality Suite is here to talk to us about what it was like joining a band, and how his musical career has shaped his life.
Videos and pictures of him drumming from shows, younger pictures of his first kits, and when he was just starting out.	1. When did you start drumming, did you always want to join a band?
Choice 1: Pictures of when the band first got together/other relevant things depending on the answer. Choice 2: Pictures and clips of the inspired bands and similar clips to his performances showing the correlation.	2. Is this band the type of group you always envisioned joining? if he says no to the first question - What were your favorite bands throughout growing up? Did they ever influence you to be where you are today?
In studio clips/bloopers to show the process of writing a song.	3. How did you guys all come together? What was it like producing your first song.
Examples of their discography and how their music and live show scene has expanded.	4. What inspires your music and how has it followed you through your career?
Clips or photos from that highlight whether its a show, the release of a	5. What is the biggest highlight the Reality suite has?

song, etc
General more clips of recent shows, new members, etc	6. Where would you like Reality Suite to go in the future? How are you guys planning on getting there?
Showing of their spotify discography, a vinyl, etc showing their music and merch.	7. Are you guys more focused on produced music or live shows? Where can your audience find your work and public announcements?
ENDING	Well, thank you for letting me have you. Your music career proves that when you're dedicated, nothing can stop you. Everybody, my name is Vincent Tirri, a student at PCTI, and this was Reality Suite.